

EXCURSIONS

Catalina Island

Catalina Island is a fun and entertaining excursion. You will visit Altos de Chavon, a replica of a 15th century Italian village, filled with shops and museums and artisans. This little village is a photographer's dream. It sits above the Chavon River, where the film Apocalypse Now was filmed. After about 45 minutes in the village, you will head board a catamaran to take you to Catalina Island. On the island there are different activities to partake in, like fishing, snorkeling, banana boat, mega wing, volleyball, and many more.

Your delicious lunch includes lobster, salad, pasta, fresh fruits, and open bar.
